Eldorado Board Bans Sup't Office

Reason Given for 5-1 Vote Declining Enrollment, Need to Cut Expenses

The Eldorado city school system will operate next term without a superintendent, unless there is a change from action taken by the school board Thursday evening.

Members of the Board of Education, District 67, by a five to one vote Thursday night adopted a resolution to abolish the office of superintendent.

Reason given for the action was a continuing decline in enrollment and need to cut expenditures.

Ralph Slow, a native of Eldorado, is superintendent of the Eldorado school system and has held the post for twenty-five years. Prior to accepting the position he was a member of the Eldorado Township high school faculty.

The resolution adopted last night said in part: "Abolish and discontinue the position and office of superintendent and supervising teacher in the schools of said district, such to be and become effective at and after the end of school year 1957 and 1958."

Says Action Harsh

On roll call vote Gratton Hill, Frank Gray, Charles Carner, Amos Pulliam and Roy Moore voted "yes." Robert Finnie voted "no."

Mr. Slow asked for permission to comment on the action and stated he considered it "harsh to adopt such a resolution without contact being made and the proposed action being discussed. It seems cruel, if not crude, and unfriendly."

Mr. Finnie then declared the reason he voted "no" was due to the resolution being written and discussed by board members without talking with Mr. Slow at any time about it.

Other members stated there was nothing personal about the action, but it was necessary to cut operating expenses and considerable money could be saved by abolishing the position of superintendent.

Earlier Trouble

Eldorado's declining enrollment and accompanying problems first came to public attention shortly after the start of the present school year.

In the latter part of September two grades at the Lincoln school were combined with grades at the Washington school because of the small enrollment in the grades involved.

This caused the Lincoln pupils to go to a considerable additional distance to get to school. Parents protested and picketed the Washington school.

Before the trouble was settled six members of the board—James Coleman, Henry Wettaw, Quentin Wilson, Stanley Carter, Delmas Tison and Harold Ingram—resigned and the two grades were re-stated at Lincoln.

Discuss Combining Grades

However, apparently the enrollment in the grades concerned has been too small to justify the expense of operation and possibility of combining grades was discussed at length at the Thursday meeting. It was also voted to notify three teachers may

Miss Michal Foster Is Awarded PTA Scholarship from District 30

The P. T. A. Scholarship Selection committee met Monday night, March 17, at the Saline county court house in Harrisburg. The following students were picked by the Committee:

Miss Michal Foster, Harrisburg Township high school, was the winner.

Miss Judy Clananah, Pope County high school, was chosen as first alternate.

Miss Anita Davenport, Shawneetown high school, second alternate.

The students were judged on their desire to become a teacher, scholastic standing, character, leadership, ability, and health.

Renewal applications were read and voted on for Miss Norma McDonald, from Harrisburg who is attending Blackburn College, Carlinville, and Miss Sue Bradley, Ridgway, who is attending Southern Illinois University, Carbondale. Both renewals were approved.

The awards are for a $250 scholarship and may be renewed for each of the three years following its award, based on the achievements of the student for the year and the continued fulfillment of the conditions under which it was granted.

The scholarship selection committee judged students from P. T. A. district 30 which includes Saline, Gallatin, Pope and Hardin counties.

Planning Group Discusses Clean Up for April 1-3

County, Township, City, Village Officials Present at Meeting

Virgil Ferrell, Harrisburg Township supervisor, was chairman for the meeting of Saline county supervisors, city council members and board members of municipalities in a county wide planning group for a clean-up, paint-up and fix-up campaign to be launched with the April 1, 2 and 3 dates set at a previous meeting.

The meeting was held in the Harrisburg city hall and a good representation from the villages and townships of Saline county pledged their support to the program, not in a general way only but with the volunteering of trucks and manpower for the job.

Judge L. M. Hancock, township attorney, spoke of the opportunity for action at the city, township and county levels, pointing out the specific powers under each government for enforcing the desired cleanup program. He stated that his long experience in making and enforcing ordinances has shown him that there has been a movement of many people in business in the city, to the country and that it has become important for the townships to exert their powers for licensing and regulating junk and salvage yards, used car lots, trailer lots and other businesses, outside the city limits. City powers will probably be given more and more to the county and township boards for the regulation of these areas.

There was an optimistic note throughout the meeting, instances cited of the power of one person who improved his property, inspiring the neighborhood around him to do likewise. This is true of municipal areas as well as small home properties. Examples of improvement in towns near us, like Herrin, were given.

Others who spoke for their groups and pledged support for the improvement program were Mayor Claude Gibbons, Louis Murphy, president of the Jaycees, Ralph Brown, Saline county road commissioner, Sneed Jordan Harrisburg street commissioner, who pledged two trucks and asked for at least four more to be volunteered for April 2 and 3, William A. Smith, Galatia supervisor, Aubrey Giles, Eldorado township supervisor, Bert Jones, Raleigh township supervisor, A. K. Gates, Cottage township supervisor, Kenneth Jackson, Long Branch township supervisor, John Molinarolo, Ewell Winkelman, president of the SVDA, and others who made good suggestions and pledged support.

The next meeting was scheduled for April 17, and plans made to keep the organization empowered to call special meetings for needed action.

Supervisors Ask Absentee Voter List Be Posted in Clerk's Office

County Board Endorses Road for Little Garden Area

The Saline County Board of Supervisors, with a county primary election coming up April 8, yesterday took actions relative to absentee voting.

Grover Dale Fulkerson (D, Harrisburg), a member of the board's election committee, said that state law provides a list of absentee voters be placed in the county clerk's office and made a motion, that passed without a dissenting vote, which provided that names of such persons, their present addresses and the Saline county precinct in which they are voting, be posted in the front part of the clerk's office.

Bert Jones (D, Raleigh) moved that two new locks be bought for the absentee ballot box and that their keys be placed in a safety deposit box until needed and his motion also passed without a negative vote being signified.

Road Plan Endorsed

Board Chairman Kenneth Jackson (R, Long Branch) instructed the board's election committee to find out the exact number of ballots ordered and delivered for the April primary. Present at the board meeting to secure a resolution from the board requesting federal and state assistance in securing a good highway through the Little Garden of the Gods area southeast of Harrisburg was a committee composed of George Aydelott and Charles Wentz, Mountain township farmers, and Louis Brantley of Equality, superintendent of the Egyptian Coal Mining Co. which strips in Mountain township.

The county board unanimously endorsed the program. Other organizations that have or will adopt resolutions favoring such a road include the Shawnee Hills Recreation Association, the Saline Valley Development Association and the Saline County Historical Society.

To Present Material to Gray

Mr. Aydelott, a member of the Southeastern Illinois Electric Co-operative's board of directors, plans to be in Washington next week along with SEIEC board members William Bradley of Gallatin county and Lloyd Pickard of Franklin county and co-op Manager Thomas Clevering. At that time he will present material including the endorsement to Cong. Kenneth J. Gray of the 25th Illinois district and Cong. Collier of the 10th Illinois district.

After hearing a report by A. K. Gates (R, Cottage), chairman

Power Failure Hits Million Homes, Offices

Worst Conditions In Pennsylvania, N. Jersey, Maryland

By United Press

A wild storm lashed the Northeast with new snows today, adding to the emergency conditions created by transportation tieups, communications failures and power blackouts affecting more than a million homes and offices.

The storm, the worst in 20 years in some sections, began Thursday and unloaded up to three feet of snow in its 13-state onslaught.

It pounded northward today—the first full day of spring—dumping heavy snow over most of the central and southern New England along with gale easterly winds. The Weather Bureau warned of gales from Eastport, Maine, to the Delaware breakwater.

A special weather bulletin from the Boston, Mass., forecast center predicted up to a foot of snow today in the interior of southern New England and up to 15 inches in northern New England before the storm ends.

Many Without Electricity

The near blizzard claimed at least 25 lives in the storm area ranging from North Carolina to New England and west into Ohio. The toll included 12 in eastern Pennsylvania, 5 each in New York and New Jersey and 2 in Virginia near the District of Columbia.

The worst conditions were in New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Maryland where the soggy snow snapped power and telephone lines leaving millions without electricity, heat and communications.

In New York City, about 7,500 men were put to work clearing streets. Interstate trains were about one-half to two hours late arriving at Pennsylvania Station in New York. The Pennsylvania Railroad reported about two feet of snow along its right of way west of Philadelphia.

At Maguire Air Force Base in New Jersey, only essential civilian and military personnel were called to work today due to driving hazards.

Radio Stations Off Air

About 108,000 homes still were without power today in Long Island's Suffolk and Nassau counties.

Atlantic City, N. J., with a population of 61,000 was without power for about seven hours when a high voltage transmission line snapped. Physicians at an Atlantic City hospital delivered a baby by the beam of a flashlight. All radio stations went off the air.

All told, about 1,247,000 homes and offices were without power, including 400,000 in the Philadelphia area, 400,000 in New Jersey, 240,000 in the Washington area, 105,000 in Long Island, N. Y., and 100,000 in Baltimore. Power was not expected to be restored in some parts of Washington until Saturday.

Paced by Food Prices

Living Costs At New High Despite Unemployment, Low Production

WASHINGTON — Record high food prices pushed living costs to a new all-time high in February, the Labor Department reported today.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics said the consumer price index rose 2 of 1 per cent last month despite rising unemployment and falling industrial production.

BLS Commissioner Ewan Clague said he did not see much chance for a decline in living costs in the next few months. Consumer prices he said, hinge largely on crop conditions across the country.

The index last month stood at 122.5 per cent of average 1947-49 prices. It was 32 per cent higher than a year ago.

The index has reached new peaks in 16 of the last 18 months. It was changed in the other two.

Pay Raises for Some
The rise in the index meant pay raises of 1 to 2 cents an hour for 100,000 workers in metals, aircraft, and local transit industries. About 30,000 workers at Hughes, Fairchild, and Martin aircraft companies will get the pay hike.

Buying power of the average factory worker's pay was down by 4 of 1 per cent in February. It was almost 5 per cent below that of a year earlier because of rising costs and shorter hours.

President Eisenhower called his cabinet into session this morning to discuss the nation's odd economic condition.

The oddity is that prices of food and consumer goods and services—the three elements that make up the cost of living index—rose last month in the midst of a recession. They went up at the same time that retail sales, income, industrial production and employment were declining.

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

by DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says: FCC needs major overhaul; Sherman Adams didn't relish Gridiron ribbing; Secretary Benson has ex-German agent as his public relations friend.

WASHINGTON—It looks as if the White House misse: a great opportunity in filling the shoes of ousted Richard Mack on the Federal Communications Commission. The man like appointed, John Cross, is a likable pedestrian bureaucrat, an honest engineer, but without special ability and with no real concept of the importance of the FCC can play in the American way of life.

However, he comes from Arkansas, home state of Congressman Oren Harris, now chairman of the legislative Oversight Investigating committee, and the White House was so anxious to please the man who was about to cross-examine Sherman Adams, Ike's brother-in-law, and others close to the White House, that Cross was rushed into the job.

That Cross is completely honest is indicated by his own description of himself to the press as "not smart." At least he's frank enough to admit it.

Meanwhile, with Congress talking about making the FCC the kind of agency it was intended to be, here are some fairly simple moves that could lift it out of the slough of political favoritism:

1. Pick high calibre commissioners, not routine bureaucrats. 2. Appoint commissioners for more than seven years, so they won't have to job hunt after seven years among radio-TV executives. A commissioner now thinks twice before he antagonizes the networks, for fear he'll soon be looking for a job from the networks.

3. Subject the broadcast industry to public utility regulation that would limit profits to be made from a TV channel or radio station. This would encourage more public service programs.

4. Make it a criminal offense for any outsider, including congressmen, to talk to a commissioner about the award of a license under adjudication. Congressmen, who are constantly harassed by constituents to pressure FCC commissioners, would welcome this.

Gridiron Club skits were so rough on the Eisenhower administration last week that Assistant President Sherman Adams, who had accepted an invitation to see a repeat show on Sunday afternoon when ladies are invited, changed his mind about coming. He'd had enough the night before.

One skit featured him telephoning the FCC for TV channels for favored Republicans to the tune of the song:

"Sugar in the mornin',
Sugar in the evenin',
Sugar at supper time,
FCC's our baby
And TV ain't no crime."

Secretary of Commerce Sinclair Weeks, reportedly involved in the award of Channel 5 in Boston to the Herald-Traveler, looked glum. Bob Choate, publisher of the Herald-Traveler, sat nearby. He looked glum.

SENA BENSON'S FRIENDS
Ezra Taft Benson is a very sincere gentleman with a strange choice of friends.

Hardly an hour after President Eisenhower announced his unqualified support of Benson, the embattled secretary of agriculture telephoned Dr. Edward A. Rumely, the often-investigated lobbyist for right-wing causes.

"You have been foremost in upholding my work," Benson said, "so I wanted you to be the first to hear of this endorsement by the President."

Rumely was jailed as a German agent during World War I and now operates the Constitution and Free Enterprise Foundation, which uses congressional frank to flood the country with propaganda and copies of Benson's book, "Farmers at the Crossroads."

Secretary Benson followed up his phone call to Dr. Rumely with a letter urging more financial support for "the fight to regain and preserve freedom for American agriculture."

"The fight seems to be intensified," wrote Benson. "There is so much at stake that every business firm in this country financially able to do so should be willing to provide a few thousand dollars to help in this fight to regain and preserve freedom for American agriculture."

Rumely responded by ordering a million copies of an article by Earl Hughes called "Let's Set the Farmer Free." Rumely told his contributors that he intended to use the free mailing privileges of Congressman Ralph Gwinn of New York to circulate the million copies at the expense of the taxpayers. This would save his contributors $30,000, figuring three cents for each letter.

Rumely also announced he would distribute 150,000 copies of a pamphlet written by Benson.

This is how a lobby, financed by big business, is trying to sell the public the Benson farm program.

Note: Benson is preparing a campaign to seek city support for his farm program on the argument that lower farm prices mean lower food prices. However, while farm prices have gone down, food prices have gone up. It's the middlemen who have profited.

It is common practice in the Pentagon to duck difficult decisions by referring them to committees for further study. Assistant Defense Secretary Paul Foote has now gone one step further. He has appointed a committee to study whether or not to make a study. As the Defense Department's research chief, he has assigned a group to conduct "a study of the feasibility of making a study of limited war."

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY
It is God that girdeth me, and maketh my way perfect. Psalm 19:32.

He provides armor also. It is not enough to be pretty good, we should aim at perfection. A tiny wound from a rye straw caused the death of a supreme court judge. We are wrong to say we do not need God's armor

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Diefenbacher, D.D.
(Written for NEA Service)

Americans are proud of their material advance over that of a few short years ago. They build monuments to progress and to people who have added to the material assets of mankind. High over Birmingham, Ala., stands a statue of Vulcan who represents industry and memorializes the higher standard of living which industry has made possible.

In contrast to this great statue is a small stone replica of a little-known clergyman kneeling in prayer in the center of the city. He will not long be remembered for his preaching nor for his outstanding service to the city.

His attitude of prayer will, however, give courage to thousands in the market place who pause and turn their hearts to God. It would be better to pray quietly for the millions who need God than to spend our total lives memorializing material gain. We, too, can minister through prayer for the human heart of the city.

Carpets Keep New Look

With proper care wall to wall carpeting will retain the new look.

Correct cleaning methods have seemingly been a mystery and controversial even to carpet manufacturers. After much research a product is on the market that cleans and fluffs up beat down carpet paths plus removal of spots thereby maintaining the new look. The textile engineer of a large carpet mill says—"it's the best we've found."

The product is Blue Lustre. It is easily applied with a long handle brush. One half gallon of Blue Lustre concentrate cleans three 9 x 12 rugs.

Mantle, Aaron Spark Wins by Yankees, Braves

By United Press
The most valuable players of 1957 are ready to defend their laurels in '58.
That's the message from Mickey Mantle and Hank Aaron, whose thunderous bats led the New York Yankees and Milwaukee Braves into the World Series last season. Both got off to slow starts this spring but they're belting away now as if they already could smell this year's Series dough.
Mantle smashed two 400-foot homers and a pair of doubles Thursday to lead the Yankees to an 11-6 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies and stretch their winning streak to six games. The Oklahoma Kid now has collected 11 hits, including three homers, a triple and five doubles, knocked in 13 runs and is hitting .344.
Aaron, meanwhile, walloped a pair of homers to drive in four runs and spark the Braves to an 11-1 triumph over the Cincinnati Redlegs and square the world champions' spring record at 5-5. Aaron's spring figures show nine hits, including three homers, nine runs batted in and a .346 average.
The Pittsburgh Pirates demonstrated some long ball power when they beat the Kansas City Athletics, 7-4, for their third win of the spring.

Herb Score, still limping because of a sprained ankle, tossed three scoreless innings for the Cleveland Indians but the San Francisco Giants rallied late to score a 10-inning, 7-5 triumph.
The Baltimore Orioles and Chicago Cubs split a doubleheader, the Orioles winning the first, 4-1, and the Cubs taking a 10-inning second game 1-0 and Don Drysdale pitched four perfect innings but the Los Angeles Dodgers had to come from behind to beat the Detroit Tigers, 6-4.

Foreign Cars Increase in U. S.

DETROIT (U.P.)—The Volkswagen became the 12th best selling car in America in January and foreign cars pushed their way to record high penetration of 5.1 per cent of the market.
Release of these figures this week came amid a flurry of articles in trade and general circulation publications on foreign small car market growth and speculation on U. S. industry small car plans.
Foreign built cars sold in the United States in January, latest registration figures available number 19,293. This was below the 21,645 sold in December, but in a month of sales slumps it was a bigger share of the market.

Saline County CHECKERBOARD NEWS

By G. L. Abney
FEEDING ADVISER

Chicks Thrive In Zero Weather On Purina Chow And With Heat Lamp

26 Baby chicks which arrived during below zero temperature eight weeks ago were placed outside with a heat lamp and have been outside ever since. During the eight weeks they ate 111 pounds of Purina Chow, and their total weight at the end of the eight weeks was 74 pounds, making an average of 2 pounds and nine ounces apiece. This is an average of one pound of chicken meat per one pound and 5 oz. of Purina chow. Pictured above is our lady boss, Mrs. Harold Godard with one of these frying size Purina chickens.

Pickering's Purina Fed Hogs Make Good Gains

Harry Pickering, who lives in Walnut Grove community on Harrisburg RFD 2, trucked a load of hogs to market a few days ago, which at four months and 27 days averaged 211 pounds. Their rapid gain was made on Purina Chow, a fact that your Checkerboard reporter calls to attention of all hog raisers.

Hog Sanitation Helped By Purina Dusting Powder

Right here we want to say that hog raisers who have not used our Purina Hog Dusting Powder as an insecticide and bedding deodorant are "missing the boat." Get yourself a "barrel" of this stuff and use it on both hogs and cattle and you will see a wonderful improvement in your animals. There is no need of anyone losing a good animal due to pests when they can get Purina Dusting Powder at Godard's.

It's Time to Begin The Battle Against Bugs

The "vanguard" of overwintering insects is about to launch itself on your shrubs, orchard, shade and ornamental trees. To win we have just the "guns" you need in our full and complete line of Ortho sprays. Get yourself a "Dormant Spray Kit" right now, and pour it to them before they rocket themselves all over the place.

New Low Seed Prices at Your Checkerboard Store

As a special inducement to our customers to get their field seed now, we are offering the following new low prices:

- Alsike Clover, bu. $19.20.
- Certified Ladino Clover, 50 lb. bag, $23.00.
- Sweet Clover, northern grown, white blossom, bu. $9.60; yellow blossom, bu. $9.00.
- Red Clover Seed, bu. $18.60.
- Timothy, bushel, $7.20.
- Kansas Alfalfa, bushel $21.60.
- Certified Buffalo Alfalfa, bu. $24.00.
- Buffalo Alfalfa, bushel $22.80.
- Korean Lespedeza, 100 lb. $9.00.
- Clinton Oats, northern grown, 3 bu. bag $3.80.
- Yellow Soy Bean Seed, bu. $2.95.
- Certified Seed Beans, bu. $3.25.
- 2c per pound more for broken lots.

Lots Going On Among Checkerboard Personnel

The flu struck our Checkerboard store this week, but it didn't interfere with our Poultry parties. At the one in Pope county Lon Broadway of Eddyville was the winner of the Westinghouse clock-radio. Mrs. William Haney, Somerset was the other winner. Today's the day in Harrisburg.

Best Wishes to Pre-Easter Newlyweds

Checkerboard friends extend best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. John Endley Jr., and to Mr. and Mrs. George David Handel.

Also to Janice Phelps as President of Delta Lambda Chapter of Phi Mu, and to Frances Hamp, Rt. 3, Harrisburg, who has been named editor of SIU Egyptian.

Weren't those tournament basketball games exhausting!

"Bulky-Las Makes Plenty of Milk at Surprisingly Low Cost"

The other day one of our local dairymen made this statement. He had fed a competitive feed until he made the 30-Day Bulky-Las Test. Now he's marketing his grain as milk through Bulky-Las. He's feeding a mix of 1500 lbs. of grain and 500 lbs. of Bulky-Las on a 2:4 ration. This ration actually costs him less per bushel than the value of the grain per bushel with which we started. "Besides being economical to buy, this ration makes milk and holds cow condition, too," says our friend. This ration works fine with herds up to 350 lbs. fat. Above that production level they should be fed Purina Cow Chow or Milk Chow. Yes, we have a Purina Dairy Chow that's right for you whether you have lots of grain, some grain or none. Ask about them.

ON STAGE!—Members of the CMCHS senior play cast have been working long hours perfecting their performances for the annual senior play, "You Can't Beat the Drums," to be presented both afternoon and evening Friday, March 28.

'You Can't Beat the Drums,' Senior Class Play at High School March 28

"You Can't Beat the Drums," a comedy in three acts by Carl Webster Pierce, will be presented Friday, March 28, by the Senior class of the Carrier Mills Community high school.

The story of the play:

In the Drumm family, I. Q. means "Individuality Quota." As Humphrey (Hum) Drumm, played by VIC WYATT, the imaginative and enterprising head of the household, explains it, "Too many people fail to express themselves as individuals. We Drumms are different. We do original things!" And before the play is five minutes old, it is dramatically and amusingly evident how right he is.

Hum himself makes up small "packages of democracy"—actual small parcels of a la American dirt dug from a winding tunnel in the cellar. These he sends via parcel post to freed-m-loving people all over the world, just so the recipients can step on the dirt and feel that they are setting foot on "the free soil of the good old U.S.A."

Hum's wife, Alpha Drumm, played by NINA DAVIDSON, specializes in writing letters of praise ("Alpha's Applause") to people whose unique or praise worthy deeds have been reported in the newspapers.

"Dizzy" Drumm, played by SUSAN RICKETTS, the younger teen-age daughter, has pledged herself to play the recording of Elvis Presley's current song hit one million times. Her brother, "Dirty," played by JEFF HEATON, is determined to perfect a thousand imitations—imitations of a worm turning, a window shade going up, and similarly curious accomplishments. Then there's Primera Drumm, played by NAN HAWKINS, a specialist in using the most uncommon words in the English language, who has held five jobs in six months because she doesn't want to get into a rut.

Next door to the Drumm residence is a prison. From its confines, Elmer the Eel and Gene the Gyp have succeeded in making their mysterious escape this very afternoon! Hot on their trail are Officers Parker, played by LARRY EDWARDS, and "Ferret" FARR, played by CHARLES RANN; and it's not surprising that they are soon convinced that the Drumms "Quotas" and eccentric behaviorisms are in "ality devices and signals which aided and abetted the prisoners in escaping."

The most damaging evidence is the discovery of an "escape" tunnel which runs from the prison kitchen to the Drumms' cellar. Also, Lorna Long, played by DIRLA DOBNEY, the appealing wife of Gene the Gyp, has been befriended by the Drumms and taken in as a roomer. Then, too, it seems that Officer Parker has intercepted a letter which Alpha has written to Elmer the Eel, although Alpha innocently insists that her note was just one of hundreds she writes to strangers whom she feels deserve a word of encouragement. Further, the representatives of the law cannot but wonder why Grandma Drumm, played by DIXIE MILBURN, spends her spare time braiding a "ladder of loveliness" from discarded party ribbons, and inquiring as to the height of the prison walls. Happily, Elmer the Eel, played by RON ROE, is finally trapped in the tunnel; and his confession clears the Drumms of any wrongdoing. In fact, Officer Parker readily admits that when it comes to getting a "kick" out of life—and helping others to do the same—well, "You can't beat the Drumms!"

There will be two performances, one at 1:15 and another at 8 p. m.

Faculty director is Helen Gurley, assisted by student directors Jerry Fort and Lewis Williams. Stage managers are Lee Roy Mitchell and Doyle Taborn.

WHAT, A SALE ON ELECTRICITY?

Sure, you might call it that. There is a special residential rate for electric water heating that is much less than the regular rate.

- Q. What is this lower rate?
It's a special rate for automatically controlled water heater service... only 1 1/4¢ per kilowatt-hour...
- Q. Why is this service offered?
It encourages the use of more electricity during "off peak" hours... hours when there are fewer demands for electricity by the customers. CIPS still must have costly facilities available to provide ample power for the "peak" hours... or hours of heavy use. The off peak service enables the company to offer the customer electric water heating at a considerable saving.
- Q. How does off peak service operate?
Your electric water heater can operate a total of 16 1/2 hours a day... during the off peak hours. The electricity used in this manner is measured by a separate meter and appears as a separate item on your bill.
- Q. Does everyone use this service?
Most CIPS customers who heat water electrically find that this off peak service meets their needs. Electric water heating service is available, of course, 24 hours a day at the regular residential rate.

Your nearest electrical appliance dealer or CIPS office will be glad to analyze your hot water needs... and help you determine the type service and size water heater that is best for your family.

Nixon Meets With Illinois GOP Leaders

CHICAGO — Vice President Richard M. Nixon met with Gov. Stratton and other state Republican leaders Thursday afternoon, and apparently found GOP political prospects encouraging.

Among those on hand for the hour-long battle in the vice president's suite at the Sheraton-Blackstone Hotel was Martin Hollingsworth, GOP committeeman for Illinois, who predicted the Republicans would gain two congressional seats in Illinois this fall. He declined to say which ones he had in mind.

Hollingsworth said the talk led him to the conclusion that "we probably have the best outlook of any state in the union" for the 1958 congressional race.

Stratton said he expected that Nixon would come to Illinois to speak on behalf of GOP congressional candidates. The governor hedged when asked if he and Nixon had discussed Stratton's potential as a vice presidential candidate in 1960.

"I still have three years to go as governor," Stratton said, "but I'm very happy that some people are thinking along those lines."

Others attending the meeting included Cook County State's Atty. Benjamin Adamowski; Samuel Witwer of Chicago, former head of the Eisenhower volunteers; William H. Rentschler, president of the Illinois Young Republicans; and Audrey Peak, women's chairman of the state GOP.

President Cancels Trip to West Point Because of Storm

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower cancelled his scheduled flight to West Point, N. Y., today because a snow storm made flying and auto travel too risky.

There was "no use taking a chance," White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty explained.

Eisenhower, ranking alumnus of the U. S. Military Academy, had been scheduled to present the first annual national service award of graduates to Dr. Ernest O. Lawrence, the pioneer atom-smasher at a Founder's Day lunch.

Remarks the President intended to make were wired to the academy to be read at the presentation ceremony.

To Increase Food Allowances

CHICAGO — Persons receiving relief payments in 54 Illinois counties will receive an increased food allowance next month, the Illinois Public Aid Commission said.

The commission, in an announcement Thursday, said the hike will help offset an increase of 3 per cent or more in food costs in the downstate counties involved.

Gordon Watters, administrative assistant in the office of the IPAC's executive secretary, said the boost would amount to "less than a quarter more per meal" for an entire family.

Leonard to Attend Institute On Mathematics

J. Ward Barnes, principal of the Eldorado Township high school, announced today that Charles Leonard, head of the mathematics department, has received a stipend to participate in the Academic Year Institute for Mathematics Teachers at the University of Chicago. The Institute will be composed of 30 members chosen from high school mathematics teachers throughout the United States.

The Institute will be conducted jointly by the University's Department of Mathematics and college mathematics staff, in cooperation with the College of Education. The National Science Foundation sponsors the Institute as a part of its program of supplementary training for high school teachers of mathematics and science.

The general aim of the Institute is to broaden and deepen the mathematical background and professional competence of selected mathematics teachers. The program centers largely on subject matters in mathematics but gives serious consideration to questions on the content and teaching of mathematics.

The school year will start October 4, 1958 and continue through June 12, 1959.

A year ago Mr. Leonard, who also teaches chemistry at the ETHS, was selected to attend the 1957 Summer Science Institute at Murray State College, Kentucky.

Mr. Leonard is a native of western Kentucky. He received the B. S. degree from Murray State College in 1947 and the M. S. in Education from Southern Illinois University in 1951. He has been teaching at Eldorado since 1946, except the school year 1948-49 when he taught at Tolono.

Matter of FACT

Orders of knighthood are prohibited in the United States by the federal Constitution. George Washington in 1782 inaugurated the device of military recognition which is now known as the Purple Heart. At that time it was only a piece of purple cloth edged with lace or binding. For the capture of Boston from the British, Gen. George Washington received the first medal issued by the Congress. John Paul Jones received another for defeating the British ship, Serapis.

Eldorado Adds Baseball to Spring Sports Program

The Eldorado high school has added baseball to its spring sports program.

Fifteen new uniforms, complete catcher's equipment and bats and ball have been purchased by the school, but players will be expected to furnish shoes and gloves, Al Adams, athletic director, stated.

For many years track and field has been the only spring sport at the ETHS and it will be continued again this year with present plans calling for track practice at the high school followed by baseball practice at the Raleigh diamond.

"We have no schedule and I don't know how much interest there will be in baseball until the weather permits some outside work," Adams said. He added that 40 boys had been working out in the gym for the past several days and many of them had expressed an interest in both track and baseball.

Tourney Notes

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP) — Sidelines from the state high school basketball tournament:

Chicago Marshall came to Champaign in pursuit of two notable "firsts." They could become the first Chicago team ever to win the coveted state crown. And they could become the first undefeated team to take home the title since La Grange in 1953. Before La Grange, Mount Vernon in 1950 and Taylorville in 1944 went all the way without defeat.

There is a wide assortment of nicknames for the eight teams still in the running. It's the Rock Falls Rockets, Herrin Tigers, Chicago Marshall Commandos, Peoria Spalding Irish, Aurora West Black Hawks, Springfield Senators, Danville Schlarmann Hilltoppers and Highland Bulldogs.

Defending champion Herrin is the only one of this year's quarterfinalists who also made the trip to Champaign last year. The Tigers are hoping to become the fourth team in history to win two straight state titles. The others were Elgin in 1924-25, Mount Vernon in 1949-50, and Rockford West in 1955-56.

By enrollment, Danville Schlarmann is the smallest school in the tournament with 256 students. The largest is Marshall with 2,400. In between comes Highland with 326, Spalding 680, Rock Falls 684, Herrin 700, Aurora West 820, and Springfield 1,500.

The eight coaches who brought their teams to Champaign are Ray Page of Springfield, Jim Smarjesse of Spalding, Dick Haselton of Rock Falls, Paul Shebby of Schlarmann, Ed Hilbert of Highland, Bob Hutchinson of Herrin, Dick Dorsey of Aurora West, and Isadore (Spin) Salario of Marshall.

Springfield, 1917 and 1935, and Herrin, 1957, are the only former state champions still in the running.

Xavier, Dayton In NIT Finals

NEW YORK (AP) — So now two schools located only 52 miles apart in Ohio — top-seeded Dayton's "Bridesmaids" and unseeded Xavier's upset kids — will meet for the third time this season to settle the National Invitation Tournament championship.

The all-Ohio finale, to be nationally televised Saturday afternoon was set up when Dayton trounced St. John's, 80-56, and Xavier upset third-seeded St. Bonaventure, 72-53, Thursday night at Madison Square Garden.

The form sheet should be clear on the final round: Dayton beat Xavier twice this year, 74-59 and 64-58. That should make the Flyers (25-3) solid choices to win the title on this their fifth appearance in the NIT final round.

But: There's that long record of Dayton frustration in this tourney. And there's the little fact that Xavier is in a real hot-shooting streak with a .524 shooting average against St. Bonaventure.

Dayton held only a 34-31 half time edge over St. John's but Don Lane sparked a spurt that opened a 61-50 lead and then big Jack McCarthy stuffed in a series of short shots that turned the game into a runaway. When the game was hanging in the balance early in the second half, Lane hit three outside shots and two free throws and McCarthy added a basket in the drive that broke the contest open. McCarthy took scoring honors with 25 points while Case added 23 and Lane 14. Al Selden had 11, Don St. John 9.

Red-haired Hank Stein led Xavier to its easy victory by notching 27 points. The Musketeers had a seven-point lead at halftime, saw it dwindle to 33-29 in the opening minutes of the second half, but then pulled ahead to a 54-42 lead with five minutes and breezed home.

Woman's Club Helps Mail Out Easter Seals

Thousands of sheets of colorful Easter Seals cascaded into the mails last week for delivery to more than 5,000 Saline county homes, according to Mrs. W. W. Damron, president of the Harrisburg Woman's club.

Mrs. Damron pointed out that this year's mailing will reach more homes than in 1957, seeking support for the continuation and expansion of Easter Seal service for crippled children.

The 1958 appeal, conducted by the Southern Illinois Association for the Crippled, Inc., will continue through Easter Sunday, April 6.

"Every citizen in Saline county should make an effort to help our crippled children this year," Mrs. Damron said. "In the real spirit of Easter . . . and of spring . . . we hope for the greatest outpouring of support from the public in the history of the Easter Seal Society."

"This should be our greatest campaign for although medicine has overcome some of childhood's important crippling accidents, increase, and with expanding population, the number of children crippled at birth increases correspondingly.

"Fortunately in our democratic way of life in America, each of us can help these crippled children walk through our own gift of a very small portion of our income. Each of us can know with certainty that our dollars have given a crippled child a chance to a full life, when we give to Easter Seals."

Russell Malan, superintendent of schools in Harrisburg, reported that the 1958 Easter Seal campaign seeks funds to support the annual summer camping program for crippled children, the Speech & Hearing Treatment Centers in Carbondale and Carml, and in expansion into new services this year. Last year 5,937 crippled children and adults in the 33 southernmost counties of Illinois benefited from these services.
